BIOGRAPHY

Tommy W. Arnst is an Associate in the firm's Fort Lauderdale office, where he assists partners and senior associates in a variety of complex commercial litigation matters.

Before joining Conrad & Scherer, Mr. Arnst spent three and a half years working in defense litigation for a prominent nationwide law firm, where he assisted clients in litigation relating to premises liability, torts, employment law, coverage issues, landlord-tenant law, and administrative law.

Tommy obtained his law degree cum laude from the University of Miami School of Law, where he made Dean's List in the fall and spring of 2015. While in law school, Tommy worked as a summer associate at a Fort Lauderdale-based law firm where his primary focuses included appellate law, municipal law, real estate law, and torts. He also clerked for the Honorable Dorian Daamorgian at the Fourth District Court of Appeal, preparing legal memoranda for the panel's consideration in advance of hearing oral arguments and drafting opinions. Tommy has varied experience both in federal court and administrative law courts in his relatively short time as a practicing attorney.

As a South Florida native, Mr. Arnst has a vast understanding of his community and the people he represents. He spends a large portion of his time engaging in local events and activities while using his passion for sports as a means of building relationships within the community.
